

CONFIDENTIAL

MG/261

SERVICE MEMORANDUM

6 July 1959

BUMPER BAR PROTECTION

There appears to be some difficulty in cleaning off the strands of tape and adhesive which remain after the protective tape has been removed from bumper bars.

This can be done quickly and easily if petrol is used as a solvent and followed by an application of white spirit.

Should the occasion arise when the bumper bars need protecting again, they should be sprayed with a recognised protective fluid.